

Medieval Studies Minor

A medieval studies minor offers students an interdisciplinary understanding of Europe in the Middle Ages, conventionally defined as ca. 500 to ca. 1500, at an advanced undergraduate level.

A student with a minor in medieval studies will complete at least twelve credit hours of four courses at the 3000-level or higher, from English, History, or Visual Arts. The course distribution must come from at least two disciplines. The following courses count toward a minor in medieval studies; none, however, may also be used to satisfy the requirements for a student's major:

ENGL 4130 Monsters in Literature and Film

ENGL 4150 Medieval Literature

ENGL 4160 Chaucer

ENGL 4840 Studies in Literary Form (when on a medieval topic approved by the minor's contact person)

HIST 3230 Early Medieval England

HIST 3240 Medieval Europe, 1000-1500

HIST 3620 The Crusades

HIST 3970 Special Topics in History (when on a medieval topic approved by the minor's contact person)

HIST 4230 Women in Medieval Society

HIST 4240 Magic and Witchcraft before 1700

HIST 4310 The Renaissance

HIST 4340 Medieval England

HIST 4972 Advanced Special Topics (when on a medieval topic approved by the minor's contact person)

VISU 3090 Medieval Art

VISU 4972 (Special Topics in the Visual Arts) The Gothic Cathedral

VISU 3640 Northern Renaissance Art

The contact person for this minor is Professor Jan Bulman in the Department of History and World Languages and Cultures: jbulman@aum.edu or (334) 244-3180

Effective Date: July 2018 (these requirements supersede all previous requirements for a Minor in Medieval Studies).
