General description

The Division of International Studies offers a minor that will serve to prepare students for study abroad, careers in industry, government and philanthropy, as well as for graduate and professional programs.

Required Course

Required:

1. INTL 3000 (Intro to International Studies) 4 semester hours
2. Select 3 courses from approved course list (below) (9 hours total)

Elective Courses (select courses to total at least 9 semester hours)

A student with a minor in International Studies will complete at least twelve credit hours consisting of four courses at the 2000-level or higher, including the keystone course INTL 3000. The following courses count toward a minor in International Studies; none, however, may also be used to satisfy the requirements for a student's major.

INTL 2150 (Cultural Geography) 3 semester hours
 INTL 2060 (Asian Cultures) 3 semester hours
 INTL 3020 (French Culture) 3 semester hours
 INTL 3030 (German Culture) 3 semester hours
 INTL 3040 (Hispanic Culture) 3 semester hours
 INTL 4400 Literature in Translation (WIC) 4 semester hours

Additional Requirements

None.

Learning outcomes and assessment

Students will gain a more thorough understanding of non-US cultures through the International Studies minor. Students will gain interdisciplinary exposure through advanced coursework in more than one field in the Humanities.
